Presentation on Career and Employer Services

Ms. Celinda Palacios, Director of Career and Employer Services, provided a presentation on Career and Employer Services at South Texas College.

Through a robust website, career expos, workshops, and other events, the department provides services to help South Texas College graduates and alumni start their careers as well as services to employers looking to hire talented and competent employees.

Ms. Palacios reviewed the services that the College provides to students, including career planning, assistance with resumes and preparation for interviews, and direct connection with hiring employers.

The Backpack to Briefcase program was offered district wide, and helped students make the transition from academia to the professional world.

The presentation then switched focus to showcase the tools South Texas College provides to employers, who can use the College's website to make connections with the graduates who are now eager to start working. Ms. Palacios provided a guided tour of the web interface as seen by interested employers, and also demonstrated how this powerful tool provided STC the ability to track local employment and job market trends and compare them to national data.

This presentation was for the Committee's information and feedback to staff, and no action was requested.

Presentation on the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Grant to Establish Career and Technical Education Early College High Schools with Mission CISD and Weslaco ISD

On May 27, 2014 the South Texas College Board of Trustees approved the "School to Career Early College High School" grant from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

School to Career Early College High School Grant Timeline

- February 2014 – THECB issued a call for grant applications
- March 2014 – South Texas College applied for grant funding for Career and Technical Education Early College High Schools (CTE-ECHS)
- May 2014 – THECB approved FIVE CTE-ECHS programs statewide, including TWO with South Texas College and its partnerships with Mission CISD and Weslaco ISD

This grant supported the development of two new Early College High Schools in partnership with Mission CISD and Weslaco ISD. At each of these ECHS campuses, students would have the opportunity to earn an Associate of Applied Science degree or a Certificate in the high demand, high skill fields of Diesel Mechanics, Precision Manufacturing Technology, or Welding.

South Texas College would disburse $600,900 in grant funds to the partner school districts. Each school district would use this funding for instruction and staffing, and the College would provide 50% funding to hire a CTE Coordinator for these programs. The school districts would bear the responsibility for any costs beyond those provided for through grant disbursement, and would also be required to maintain these ECHS programs beyond the grant period.

These new CTE focused Early College High Schools would help the school districts meet their HB5 CTE pathway requirement that encouraged students on a CTE pathway to enroll in dual credit courses that "lead to a degree, license, or certification." They were expected to serve as flagship programs for the concept of Career and Technical Education Early College High Schools, which could revolutionize the public approach to workforce training and opportunities to high school students.

This item was for the Committee's review and feedback to staff only, and no action was requested.

Review and Discussion of High School College Readiness Course as Required by HB5

Under section 10 of House Bill 5 (HB5), the 83rd Legislature of the State of Texas established the requirement that each Independent School district in the State of Texas must partner with at least one institution of higher education to develop and provide courses in college preparatory mathematics and English language arts.

A Memorandum of Understanding was developed that would join South Texas College with the University of Texas Pan-American, the University of Texas at Brownsville, Texas State Technical College-Harlingen, and Texas Southmost College in a collaborative development of the curriculum to satisfy the HB5 requirement, and to offer the curriculum to local school districts through partnerships.

Upon the formation of University of Texas – Rio Grande Valley the MOU could be rewritten to incorporate that institution in place of UTPA and UTB.

This MOU provided the five public institutions of higher education in Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr, and Willacy counties the opportunity to develop the curriculum to be used by the partner ISDs in preparing their students for college level coursework. Faculty at each institution were involved in this development, and ISD teachers would be given professional development to help them understand and follow the developed curriculum as designed by the institutions of higher education.

The MOU was provided in the packet, along with a course development and implementation timeline.

By signing this MOU with peer institutions of higher education, South Texas College would participate in the collaborative development of the HB5 courses for mathematics and English Language Arts. This would help STC verify that the curriculum was designed to meet appropriate standards, and would also enter STC into an agreement with each of the other institutions of higher education to share data and provide feedback regarding student success for students completing the HB5 courses. This would help develop and maintain a college preparatory curriculum as an effective tool for student success.

Ms. Laura Talbot, Director of Curriculum and Student Learning, lead the review and discussion to provide the Committee with the necessary background information and to respond to questions as appropriate.

This item was for the Committee's information and feedback to staff, and no action was requested.

Presentation on “T-STEM Challenge Scholarships” Funded by a Grant from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) has awarded South Texas College a grant in the amount of $263,160 to be used to provide 100 scholarships in the amount of $2,500 to students with a Science, Technology, Engineering, or Math (STEM) major. This award was approved and accepted by the Board on August 26, 2014.

In 2011, the 82nd Legislature passed a bill to address the state's need to increase student interest in and completion of STEM programs. The THECB set up a grant to provide qualifying Texas public community and technical colleges with scholarship funding to incentivize students to enter and succeed in these programs.

These funds are provided to South Texas College with no requirement of cost sharing or fund matching. $250,000 will be awarded to students, with a focus on underserved and low income students. In addition to the direct scholarship award, these students will be required to participate in career readiness workshops that will help them develop their resume and interview skills and will teach them to use the STC Job board. The remaining $13,160 will go toward administration of the scholarship and programs for scholarship recipients.

Mr. Miguel Carranza, Associate Dean for Student Financial Services and Veterans' Affairs, will provide additional information to the Committee.

No action is requested. This item is for the Committee's information and feedback to staff.

The major trade associations in the industry have invested over $7.5 million in private funds for the development of the NIMS standards and its credentials, including:

- Association for Manufacturing Technology,
- National Tooling & Machining Association,
- Precision Machine Products Association,
- Precision Metal-forming Association, and
- Tooling and Manufacturing Association.

These associations also contribute annually to sustain NIMS operations and are committed to the upgrading and maintenance of the standards.

Mr. Morales will provide the Committee with a review of the skills taught to students in the PMT program, and will review the job opportunities available to students upon completion.
