The College is committed to provide access to educational opportunities to the communities in Hidalgo and Starr counties through quality instructional programs that meet the needs of students, local business and industry. The commitment includes offering courses relevant to the fields of study and academic disciplines at the various campuses and centers throughout the College's service area, partnerships with local public schools to provide instructional services through dual enrollment, and delivery of quality instruction through distance education and asynchronous education.

The College is also committed to provide non-credit courses, professional development programs, workshops, seminars, and conferences for the communities the College serves in Hidalgo and Starr counties.
